

Gaurav Duggal

Financial Controller, Aircel

Gaurav Duggal is the Financial Controller at Aircel and has been with Aircel for the past 2 ½ years. In this role, Gaurav is responsible for developing and implementing Finance related strategies and providing leadership to Controllership, Tax & Financial Projects. He was also closely involved in the incubation of Aircel's Financial Shared Service Operations.

Prior to Aircel, he had a 5 year stint with American Express as Business Leader of Global Accounting vertical & CFO. In this role, he was responsible for servicing over 40 markets across the globe and leading Process reengineering and improvement of financial processes while maintaining integrity of financial books.

He earlier worked Coca-Cola India for a period of 9 years in both on the Bottling and Concentrate side of the business, in different locations in India/ Asia as Region Finance Manager and his last held position in Coke was Director – Finance. Gaurav has a total work experience of 22 years and is a Chartered Accountant from the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.