

H Karthik

Vice President, Everest Group

H. Karthik, Vice President, leads Everest Group's Global Sourcing practice and is a recognized thought leader on global sourcing. He leads a team of analysts dedicated towards serving clients on multiple global sourcing strategy issues, such as shared services, locations, sourcing models, benchmarking and optimization. He is a well-known speaker in international conferences related to global services. Karthik also has significant experience serving country development organizations across the world, including India, Philippines, South Africa, Mauritius and Egypt. He has a well-rounded professional experience spanning research, consulting and financial services.