

Daniel Idzkowski
Strategic Account Manager – Global Corporate Relations,
The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants

Daniel Idzkowski is a Strategic Account Manager at the Global Corporate Relations team for CIMA, The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants.

For the last 3 years Daniel has been managing relations with large multinational organizations helping design, develop, implement and optimize finance learning programmes.

Daniel's main focus over the past years has been the Global Business Services qualification program develop jointly with The Hackett Group, and he brings a wealth of insights on the topic of talent management and development across the SSC/GBS and BPO organizations. Prior to joining CIMA, Daniel has been working 5 years for a top global HR Consulting company focusing on executive assessments, managerial audits, talent management and executive search projects.

His educational background is Management and Marketing studies on the faculty of Enterprise Management on the SGH-Warsaw School of Economics.