

Pravin K Purang
Management Advisor & Group Head -
Procurement & Supply Chain Management,
Jindal Steel and Power Ltd.

Pravin K. Purang is a Management Advisor and Group Head, Procurement & Supply Chain Management at Jindal Steel and Power Ltd. He is a Bachelor in Mechanical Engineering and Masters in Industrial & Production Engineering from IIT Delhi. He has over 35 years of work experience and his areas of expertise and interest include TQM, BPR, QFD Techniques, Information Technology, Strategic Planning etc.

Mr. Purang started his career with TATAs, through Campus selection and worked at Voltas Corporate and subsequently moved to Eicher Tractors Ltd. With his stellar performance across multiple functions, he was promoted to become Managing Director of Royal Enfield Motors and subsequently MD of Eicher Ltd. and for many years, he was a member of Eicher Group Board of Management.

Purang has been trained in Japan by JUSE (Japan Union of Scientists and Engineers) in TQM, Manufacturing practices and concluded Collaboration with Mitsubishi Motors for making Trucks in India. He has been the founder Chairman of OPJIT Engineering College. He has also been Member of the Steering Group of UP Technical University.

Pravin has been part of the leadership team to turn around Royal Enfield Motors. His contribution to the industry continues through active participation and being key member in CII, SIAM, and IIMM. He is an active alumni of IIT Delhi.

Purang has presented several papers in national and international forums and has received several awards in Procurement and Supply Chain including British Chevening Scholarship, IIT Alumni Award, JGBS Top Rankers Excellence award. Fellowship from IIMM, Procurement Leader of the Year, Awards from Annual CPO Forum, India